KEY INFORMATION

MEET THE SPEAKERS

WORKTECH24 Sydney will attract some of the biggest and brightest names to debate, discuss, and divulge the latest thinking on the future of work and the workplace.

The conference will feature leading international thinkers from industry and academia. Our speakers represent some of the world's biggest brands and best universities and research departments, alongside radical visionaries from new innovative organisations.

Through interdisciplinary speakers and learning experience, we focus on bringing cutting edge ideas and inspiration to the workplace community to enhance creativity and move thinking forward. Instead of focusing on peer to peer innovation through imitation, we aim to curate a unique programme, bringing together experts in the fields of people, place and technology and relevant adjacencies to reflect on the future of work and workplace.

Alongside the conference series, the WORKTECH Academy knowledge hub explores the future of work through six key themes: people, place, technology, design, culture and innovation. Creating leading commentary, research and publications WORKTECH Academy places scientific research at the heart of key business problems.

SESSION HIGHLIGHTS

The future of work and the workplace is on everyone's agenda. This event brings together thought leaders to share cutting edge ideas on the future from the perspectives of people, place and technology. It will allow an understanding of the key drivers of change and enablers of innovation that will shape how, where and when work takes place.

Key themes we will be discussing at this event include:

KEY THEMES

URBAN REVITALISATION AND CORPORATE INTEGRATION

INNOVATIONS IN WORKPLACE DESIGN
AND TECHNOLOGY

WELLBEING AND EMPLOYEE
EXPERIENCE

COLLABORATION AND SUSTAINABLE INNOVATION

Urban Revitalisation and Corporate Integration

The conference will look at the role of large-scale infrastructure projects in transforming urban spaces and integrating corporate headquarters into city landscapes. It explores how such projects, like the Sydney Metro Martin Place, can serve as catalysts for revitalising civic, cultural, and business districts.

Innovations in Workplace Design and Technology

The conference will cover the latest innovations and technologies shaping the future workplace, including hybrid work models, high-performance environments, and data-driven design. Examining how emerging technologies and design principles enhance workplace efficiency, employee satisfaction, and sustainability.

Wellbeing and Employee Experience

The conference will emphasise the increasing importance of employee wellbeing and experience in organisational strategies. It explores how wellbeing initiatives and workplace design can impact productivity and satisfaction, moving beyond traditional metrics to a more holistic approach to employee care.

Collaboration and Sustainable Innovation

Highlighting the power of collaboration and innovative thinking in achieving sustainable and inclusive workplace environments. The conference will address the challenges and opportunities in integrating diverse perspectives, cultural considerations, and sustainable practices in workplace design and strategy.

Each theme captures a significant aspect of the evolving workplace landscape, focusing on how organisations can adapt to and shape the future of work through innovative designs, technological advancements, and a commitment to employee wellbeing and sustainable practices.

Aspirations And Reality – A Case Study On Prioritising Sustainable And Inclusive Outcomes

Kate French Blake, Precinct Activation Director, Macquarie Group / Sacha Coles, Global Design Director, ASPECT Studios / Sasha Titchkosky, CEO, Koskela / Johnny Bridges, Indigenous Creative Lead, Balarinji

This panel will explore sustainable and inclusive design, and feature insights on integrating cultural design, innovations in sustainable materials, and inclusive design practices. 09:00 | CHAIRPERSON'S OPENING REMARKS & WELCOME ADDRESS

Dr Kirsten Brown, Workplace Advisory

09:15 | WELCOME FROM MACQUARIE

Tracey MacDonald, Executive Director, Macquarie

09:20 | OPENING KEYNOTE

Michael Silman, Sydney Metro Martin Place Project Director, Macquarie Group

In the heart of Martin Place, the culmination of more than 10 million hours of work by more than 10,000 people over six years has been unveiled. The Sydney Metro Martin Place project seamlessly integrates a major interchange for Australia's largest public transport project, Macquarie's new global headquarters at 1 Elizabeth Street, a second landmark state of the art office tower at 39 Martin Place and a vast, light filled retail and dining space. The ambitious project, one of Macquarie Group's largest ever balance sheet infrastructure undertakings, delivered in partnership with the New South Wales (NSW) Government, has been an opportunity to apply the Group's unique expertise across a complex urban, multi-sector development. The completed precinct seeks to revitalise the cultural, civic and business centre of Martin Place. From a community perspective, the project aims to enhance connection through a positive shift in the focus and flow of the city itself. The catalyst for today's multi-billion Sydney Metro Martin Place development was the NSW Government's Sydney Metro project, Australia's most technologically advanced railway, and the country's biggest ever public transport undertaking. Michael Silman will talk about the project that presented Macquarie with an opportunity to connect capital with community need and make a significant impact on the reinvigoration of Sydney's civic, cultural and financial district.

09:45 | THE FUTURE OF WORK: INNOVATIONS AND TRENDS

Philip Ross, Futurologist and CEO of Cordless Group & UnWork

16:10 | TRACES AND PLACES: A GUIDE TO WHAT COMES NEXT

Andrew Meares, Professor, Cybernetic Futures Lead, Australia National University

How can we act in the here and now in ways that connect people, place and technology? Rather than considering “the future” as a time and place yet to be, this interactive session will encourage how we can disrupt the present, informed by the past, to implement hopeful futures.

16:30 | MACQUARIE GROUP'S EVOLVING WORKPLACE – INNOVATION AND INSIGHT OVER 20 YEARS

Anthony Minasian, Technology Director, Macquarie Group
Anthony Henry, Division Director, Macquarie Group
Bronwyn Goodwin, Division Director, Macquarie Group

Macquarie Group's has been at the forefront of workplace innovation since the creation of its ground-breaking Shelley St project – the first Activity Based Working in Australia. Over the last 20 years Macquarie has been committed to designing vibrant business communities in commercial building environments that promote communication and social connection. We believe that this lies at the core of a great workplace experience. Our commitment to innovation is informed by insights from our previous projects, human centred design practice and openness to new ideas and technologies. Metro Martin Place is our latest venture – a precinct in the heart of the Sydney CBD that includes a new Metro station, public space, retail and 100,000m² of commercial space. In this session we will be sharing the lessons learnt from our last 20 years and illustrating our latest thinking in the Metro Martin Place project and new Sydney Campus for Macquarie.
